News Access Rules applicable for the broadcast of the Singapore 2010 Youth Olympic Games, 14-26 August 2010

Introduction

The broadcast of the Singapore 2010 Youth Olympic Games (“Youth Games”), to be held in Singapore between 14-26 August 2010, is subject to and protected by full IOC copyright.

Capitalised terms used in these News Access Rules have the meaning set out in the Definitions section at the end of these News Access Rules.

Only those organizations that have been granted the right by the IOC to broadcast the Youth Games for a particular territory (“Rights Holder”) may do so. No other organisation may Broadcast sound or images of any Youth Games event, including training venues, sporting action, the Opening Ceremony, the Closing Ceremony and victory ceremonies, interviews or other activities which occur at Youth Games Venues, except as permitted by these News Access Rules, as set out below.

These rules apply to all forms of Broadcasting, including television (including free to air and Pay Television, including digital channels, digital multi-channels and services such as “News Active” or “Sports Active”), Internet, Mobile Platform and other interactive media or electronic medium, and radio.

These News Access Rules are subject to applicable national laws and regulations.

NEWS ACCESS RULES

Youth Games Material is subject to full IOC copyright. All use of Youth Games Material is strictly subject to the following restrictions:

1. The broadcast of Youth Games Material may be used only as a part of regularly scheduled daily news programmes of which the actual news element constitutes the main feature (“News Programs”). News Programs shall not be positioned or promoted as Olympic/Youth Games/ Youth Games programmes.
2. 3 x 2

Non-Rights Holding Broadcast Organisations may use a maximum of six minutes of Youth Games Material per day subject to the following provisions:

- a) Youth Games Material may appear in no more than three programmes per day; and
- b) No more than two minutes of Youth Games Material may be used in any one programme.

3. 6 x 1

In the case of an all-news network, the network may use Youth Games Material during multiple news programmes, as long as

a) the Youth Games Material is used in accordance with Clause 2 (3 x 2)

b) in no more than six news programmes per day and does not exceed a total of one minute in any one programme.

4. Youth Games Material may only be used for a period of 48 hours following the completion of the actual event. After such period, Non-Rights Holders may only transmit archive Youth Games Material with the express prior written consent of the IOC.

5. Only Rights Holders are permitted to film within Youth Games Venues and to Broadcast Youth Games Material. All E Accredited Media are strictly forbidden from taking professional video equipment into Youth Games Venues or from filming within Youth Games Venues. The broadcast of Youth Games Material by E Accredited Media and non accredited media, through the Internet, Mobile Platform and other interactive media or electronic medium, and radio is strictly prohibited and is a breach of these News Access Rules.

Notwithstanding the above, E Accredited Media

a) are permitted to take and use professional video equipment into the Main Press Centre (MPC) and the Youth Olympic Village Square (OVS); and footage taken in the OVS shall not be considered subject to the time restrictions contained in these News Access Rules, and

b) may broadcast, via the Internet, all or portions of press conferences that take place in the MPC, without any territorial restrictions, provided that there is a delay of at least thirty minutes from the conclusion of the press conference

Should any fair dealing or similar provisions contained in any applicable national law permit the use by bona fide news organisations of Youth Games Material for news purposes on the Internet, then the broadcast of such Material on the Internet must not be accessible to persons outside the specific territory. Any broadcast of such Material on the Internet must be restricted to the territory in which the fair dealing or similar provision applied i.e. it must be geoblocked. Any broadcast on the Internet contrary to the above will breach the IOC's intellectual property rights and the rights of Rights Holders in other territories, and as such is expressly prohibited. All other provision of the News Access Rules would still apply.

Additional "IOC Social Media, Blogging and Internet Guidelines for persons accredited at the Youth Olympic Games" will apply.

6. The IOC and OBS will establish a YOG Television News Agency ("YOGNA") for the purpose of providing Youth Games Material to Non-Rights Holders for uses in accordance with these News Access Rules. Youth Games Material shall not be provided by the YOGNA to Non-Rights Holders or news agencies unless they provide a prior written guarantee, in form and substance satisfactory to the IOC, that they shall fully comply with all terms and conditions of these News Access Rules.

7. Non-Rights Holders will:

- a) not make available or provide Youth Games Material to any third party;
- b) ensure that no advertising, promotion, publicity or other message appears at the same time (be it superimposed or on a split screen or otherwise) as Youth Games Material and/or at the same time as any other coverage of the Youth Games which contains any Youth Games imagery or Olympic or Youth Games marks;
- c) ensure that no advertising or other message is placed before, during or after the broadcast of Youth Games Material, in such a manner as to imply an association or connection between any third party, or any third party's product or service, and Youth Games Material or the Olympic Games; and
- d) must give an on screen credit to the Rights Holder in their particular territory during each broadcast of Youth Games Material. The credit shall be in the form of leaving on the Rights Holder's watermark or, should the Youth Games Material not be sourced through the Rights Holder, a super video credit of at least five seconds to read as follows:

"Courtesy of (Name of Rights Holder)"

8. The accreditations of any organisation or person(s) accredited at the Youth Games may be withdrawn without notice, at the discretion of the IOC, for purposes of ensuring compliance with these News Access Rules.
9. These News Access Rules shall be in effect from three days prior to the start of the Youth Games until 48 hours following the conclusion of the Youth Games, namely, from 11 August 2010 until 28 August 2010. During that time, their operation shall be effected by the IOC. The IOC reserves the right to amend these News Access Rules as it deems appropriate. The IOC Executive Board shall be the final authority with respect to the interpretation and implementation of these News Access Rules
10. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising from or in connection with the execution or interpretation of these News Access Rules or breach thereof not resolved after exhaustion of the legal remedies established by the IOC, and which cannot be settled amicably, shall be submitted exclusively to the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS) for final and binding arbitration in accordance with the Statute and Regulations of the CAS. The decisions of the CAS shall be final, binding and non-appealable.
